
SCOTTY HILLS

Career Highlights and Selected Accolades

Canadian artist, songwriter, producer, educator, and workshop leader with a career spanning live performance, major-label songwriting camps, studio production, artist development, and vocal coaching.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

Juno Award nominee.

Polaris Prize-shortlisted songwriter.

Two-time Western Canadian Music Award winner.

SONGWRITING AND PRODUCTION CREDENTIALS

Signed to ole / Roc Nation as a songwriter, writing in legendary Hollywood studios for major-label song camps.

Worked with A-list producers including Illangelo (The Weeknd), Deputy (Rihanna), and Jerrod Bettis (Adele).

Worked with top vocal writers and artists including Haley Reinhart and Allison Kaplan (BTS, David Guetta).

Additional writing and collaboration credits include Paul Oakenfold and Tony Green (Tupac, Snoop Dogg, George Clinton).

LIVE PERFORMANCE AND ARTIST HISTORY

Worked as a singer-drummer with legendary blues artists Hubert Sumlin (Howlin' Wolf) and Jody Williams (Muddy Waters).

Opened for Taj Mahal, Chuck Berry, and Los Lobos.

MEDIA AND PROFILE

Featured in Los Angeles' Music Connection magazine in a songwriting profile.

TEACHING, WORKSHOPS, AND MASTERCLASSES

Hosted masterclass workshops at Vancouver's Warehouse Studio and SAE Institute.

EDUCATION

Graduated with a bachelor's degree in Vocal Jazz from Vancouver Island University.

Accepted to UBC's Masters program in Music Education